

BEL & THE DRAGON

RESTAURANT & TEA ROOM

George Cadbury 1867
Creator of Drinking Chocolate

We are proud that direct descendants of both the 7th Duchess of Bedford and George Cadbury are involved in this business, which aspires to bring you the very best English Afternoon Tea in the Land.

7th Duchess of Bedford
Creator of Afternoon Tea in 1840

AFTERNOON TEA MENU

The tradition of taking Afternoon Tea as a light meal is said to have been started by Duchess Anna Maria in the 1840s.

She felt that it was a long time between luncheon & dinner and that taking tea, delicate sandwiches, cakes and biscuits at 5 o'clock helped to bridge the gap...

TRADITIONAL AFTERNOON TEA

A Pot of Loose Leaf Tea or Herbal Infusion

Freshly Baked Scones

Jersey Clotted Cream & Homemade Strawberry Jam

Selection of Hand-cut Sandwiches

Traditional Cucumber, Scottish Smoked Salmon

Farmhouse Egg & Local Cress

Great British Cakes of the Day

On the sideboard

£13 per person or individually priced

Loose Leaf Teas & Infusions

East Indian Afternoon Blend, English Breakfast or Earl Grey

Rose of the Orient Green Tea

Pai Mu Tan White Tea

Lemongrass & Ginger or Fresh Mint

Camomile, Forest Berries, Rooibos

£3

Coffees

Espresso, Macchiato, Long Black,

Flat White, Cappuccino or Latte

£3

Ice-Cream Milk Shakes

Fresh Fruits & Laverstoke Buffalo Ice Cream

Strawberry, Dulce de Leche or Wild Blueberry

£6

Proper Drinking Chocolate

Melted Chocolate & Jersey Cream

£4

Champagne

Laurent Perrier Brut

£8 Glass /£44 Half Bottle

Laurent Perrier Rosé

£13 Glass/£65 Half Bottle

Eton Mess

A Traditional Pudding from Eton School

Crushed Sticky Meringue, Jersey Cream &

Ripe Strawberries and a hint of Fresh Mint

£5

~

Laverstoke Park Finest Ice Cream

Daily Selection of Ice Creams

£5

Old Fashioned Toasted Crumpets

Lashings of Jersey Butter

Welsh Rarebit

Old English Recipe for Melted Cheese on Toast

£5

Cheese Board

Three English Farmhouse Cheeses & Homemade Chutney

Oatcakes or Rich Fruit Cake

£7